

Worksheet

Topic: Anatomy of man – Circulatory system

The class: Third

1. Fill in the gaps, use the tools

Blood is a _____ in humans and other animals that delivers necessary substances such as nutrients and _____ to the cells and transports metabolic waste products away from those same cells.

In vertebrates, it is composed of _____ suspended in _____.

A blood cell, also called a _____, hemocyte, or hematocyte, is a cell produced through hematopoiesis and found mainly in the blood.

blood plasma

- a. oxygen
- b. hematopoietic cell
- c. body fluid
- d. blood cells

2. Use the English words

Major types of blood cells include:

- _____ (erythrocytes)
- _____ (leukocytes)
- _____ (thrombocytes)

3. Fill the table

donor	A	B	AB	O
Recipient A Recipient O

ring- can be donor

cross- can not to be donor

4. Assign terms to the tube

